

Private Client

The exact cost of administering an Estate will be affected by a number of factors and each matter is different. We have specified some of our fixed costs and expected disbursements, together with some case studies in order to provide you with an idea as to potential costs, but we recommend that you contact us to discuss matters for a case specific, no obligation estimate.

The costs of administering an Estate are normally made up of:-

-  Legal fees - (either a fixed fee or an hourly rate depending on the type of work to be completed)
-  VAT - paid on the legal fees
-  Disbursements - which are costs related to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as court fees. We handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

Fixed Fees

Applying for a Grant only (where there is a valid Will and no inheritance tax to pay)

We can help you through this difficult process by obtaining the Grant of Probate on your behalf. In order for us to provide this service you must be able to provide us with a valid, original Will and you must have knowledge of the value of any assets and liabilities of the deceased.

We will use this information to complete the appropriate IHT205 tax form and Probate Application form. We will have these documents approved and signed by you and submit them to HM Probate Registry on your behalf.

We will not undertake any correspondence with third parties or beneficiaries in the Estate or have any dealings with holding funds on behalf of the Estate or making any distributions, unless asked to do so, for which we would quote separately.

Deed of Renunciation

In the event that there is more than one Executor named in the Will and not all Executors wish to act and they do not wish to reserve their power to act, we can assist you with the drafting of a Deed of Renunciation. The Deed of Renunciation confirms that the Executor has declined to accept the role to which they were appointed in the Will and will enable any remaining appointed Executors to act in the administration of the Estate. Our fixed fee costs are in respect of an Executor who is known to you and who has confirmed that they do not wish to act in the Estate.

Drafting and being able to return to you a signed Deed of Renunciation ordinarily takes between 2-4 weeks, however this is dependent on the response times of you and third parties being able to sign and return documents.
